Part 1Numbering of Buildings*§4-101. Property Owners to Number Buildings Correctly.

It shall be the duty of the owner or owners of any dwelling house, store, or other building erected or which may hereafter be erected and located upon any street or public alley of the Borough of Red Lion now designated or which may be hereafter designated on the York County Tax Map to cause correct numbers to be placed and maintained upon said dwelling houses, stores, and other buildings; said numbers shall be of such size and shall be placed or affixed as to be plainly visible from the sidewalk of the street upon which said houses, stores, or other buildings are erected but in no event less than 4 inches high and with a stroke width of less than ½ inch.

(Ord. 7511-16, 11/12/1975; as amended by Ord. 9711-6, 11/12/1997, §101-1; and by Ord. 2009-09-02, 9/14/2009)

§4-102. Numbers to Be Obtained from Borough Manager.

Every such owner or owners of a dwelling house, store, or other building erected or to be erected upon any street or public alley of said Borough shall apply to and obtain from the Borough Manager the proper number of numbers applicable to and designating said dwelling house, store, or other building.

(Ord. 7511-16, 11/12/1975)

§4-103. Authority of Manager.

It shall be the duty of the Borough Manager and he is hereby authorized and empowered and directed by order of the same to number and renumber the dwelling houses, stores, and other buildings as aforesaid and shall prepare, keep, and maintain suitable maps, plans, charts, and records showing the numbers applicable to, allotted or assigned to any such dwelling house, store, or other building of such applicant, and said Manager shall keep a proper record of all numbers so assigned.

(Ord. 7511-16, 11/12/1975)

§4-104. Numbering System.

1. In numbering buildings, 100 numbers shall be allowed to each full block as laid out on the York County Tax Map. All lots or plots of ground with a frontage of 16 feet or less shall be assigned one number; all lots or plots of ground having a frontage of more than 16 feet shall be assigned one or more numbers. The properties on streets, avenues and public alleys crossing or terminating in Broadway shall be numbered north and south from Broadway, and the properties on all streets, avenues, and public highways terminating north and south of Broadway shall be numbered by beginning at the termination nearest Broadway and numbering north and south according as the streets, avenues, and public alleys to be numbered may be located north and south as aforesaid. The numbering of properties on streets, avenues, and public alleys terminating in or crossing Main Street shall be numbered east and west from Main Street, and the properties on all streets, avenues, and public alleys terminating east and west of Main Street shall be numbered by beginning at the termination nearest Main Street and numbering east and west according as the streets, avenues, and public alleys to be numbered may be located east and west as aforesaid. In numbering from Broadway and Main Streets, the numbers shall begin with "1." [Ord. 9711-6]

2. The numbers shall be assigned as follows: the even numbers on the right-hand sides of streets, avenues, and public alleys going east and south and on the left-hand sides of streets, avenues, and public alleys going west and north from the starting point and the odd numbers on the left-hand sides of streets, avenues, and public alleys going east and south and on the right-hand sides of streets, avenues, and public alleys going west and north from the starting point.

(Ord. 7511-16, 11/12/1975; as amended by Ord. 9711-6, 11/12/1997, §101-4)

§4-105. Violations and Penalties.

Any person violating or failing or refusing to comply with any provision of this Part, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to a fine of not more than $1,000 plus costs and, in default of payment of said fine and costs, to a term of imprisonment not to exceed 30 days. Each day that a violation of this Part continues or each Section of this Part which shall be found to have been violated shall constitute a separate offense.
