3. ADMINISTRATION – Barley, Lau, Klinedinst
 - A. Seek councils vote to override the veto of the mayor for the 2026 real estate tax levy ordinance 2025-12-5. Ms. Barley made the motion to override, and Ms. Greer seconded the motion. Mr. Musso opened for discussion. Evan advised what the Borough is expecting to spend in 2025 and stated if we continue as is for 2026, we may not have enough to make all the necessary requests for following years. Mr. Musso started roll call for the motion on the table:
Evan Heister- Yes
Mark Holloway- while he understands the mayor and how he feels, reluctantly he will agree to this increase- Yes
Dennis Klinedinst- No
Tony Musso- stated while he doesn't want to raise taxes, there is no other choice. We have survived for over 13 years without raising, but it is time, so I am a Yes.
Cindy Barley- Yes
Amy Lau- explained that she appreciates all that has been done but with all the changes in the Borough in the last year, it was just too much too soon for her so she is a No.
Brady Greer- Yes

Atty Craley-Byerts stated the council has officially overridden the mayor's veto by 5 votes. The ordinance will stand and she will send the correct statement to include in the original Ordinance.

4. ADJOURNMENT – Meeting was adjourned at 6:22 pm.
